IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT PROCEDURES FOR OPENING A NEW ACCOUNT. To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents. The Applicant hereby represents and warrants that, if an individual, the Applicant is a citizen or lawful permanent resident of the United States. The person signing below on behalf of Applicant and such individuals listed above are authorized to make this Application on its behalf and to agree to the foregoing, and also has the authority to act for Applicant's principals, co-owners, and individuals listed above, in instructing Creditors and its agents and/or assignees to obtain credit reports on them.
